[TFR 167-1]

"I will multiply your seed as the stars in the heavens."

The Kuban Cossack Host

16 Jun 93
No. 675/KKV.

City of Ekaterinodar
Krasnaya Street, House 3
(861) 52-90-71

Embassy of the United States of America
Moscow, Tchaikovsky Street, 19/23

The department, investigating people who died in Krasnodar Kraj from 1920 through 1975, requests verification of the following names having connections to either the USA or Great Britain:

1. Sergej F. Stenbok, 21 years old, Junior Lieutenant, died of wounds
2. Robert V. Chambers, 24 years old, Lieutenant, died of wounds.
3. Nikolaj R. Tejlor, Major, died of wounds.

They were buried at Sobornaya Square in Ekaterinodar in February 1920.

1. Uil'yam R. Ehtchison, Lieutenant, prisoner of war, died in Krasnodar.
2. Dzhoan F Dzhejmson, Captain, prisoner of war, died in Krasnodar.

They were buried at the military academy in the German section [by the?] KGB.

According to the facts of the investigation, the last two officers were brought to Krasnodar from Vietnam. They died while undergoing investigation.

Chief of the Department of Investigations, KKV,
Vojskovoj Starshina [signature "I. G Fedorenko"]

[Vojskovoj Starshina - in the Tsarist Army a Cossack officer rank, equivalent to a Lt. Colonel.]

Our address: Russia, 350048, Krasnodar, a/ya No. 3967
"Memorial"